New American University

Toward 2025 and Beyond
ASU Charter

ASU is a comprehensive public research university, measured not by whom it excludes, but by whom it includes and how they succeed; advancing research and discovery of public value; and assuming fundamental responsibility for the economic, social, cultural and overall health of the communities it serves.
Arizona State University (ASU) has become the foundational model for the New American University, a new paradigm for the public research university that transforms higher education. ASU is committed to excellence, access and impact in everything that it does.

Mission & Goals

Demonstrate leadership in academic excellence and accessibility

- Maintain the fundamental principle of accessibility to all students qualified to study at a research university.
- Maintain university accessibility to match Arizona’s socioeconomic diversity, with undifferentiated outcomes for success.
- Improve freshman persistence to greater than 90 percent.
- Enhance university graduation rate to greater than 85 percent and more than 32,000 graduates.
- Enhance quality while reducing the cost of a degree.
- Enroll 100,000 online and distance-education degree-seeking students.
- Enhance measured student development and individual student learning to national leadership levels.
- Engage all learners on all levels.

Establish national standing in academic quality and impact of colleges and schools in every field

- Attain national standing in academic quality for each college and school (top 5 percent).
- Attain national standing in the learning value added to our graduates in each college and school.
- Become the leading university academically (faculty, discovery, research, creativity) in at least one department or school within each college and school.
Establish ASU as a leading global center for interdisciplinary research, discovery and development by 2025

- Become the leading American center for discovery and scholarship in the integrated social sciences and comprehensive arts and sciences.
- Enhance research competitiveness to more than $815 million in annual research expenditures.
- Transform regional economic competitiveness through research and discovery and value-added programs.
- Become a leading American center for innovation and entrepreneurship at all levels.

Enhance our local impact and social embeddedness

- Strengthen Arizona’s interactive network of teaching, learning and discovery resources to reflect the scope of ASU’s comprehensive knowledge enterprise.
- Co-develop solutions to the critical social, technical, cultural and environmental issues facing 21st-century Arizona.
- Meet the needs of 21st-century learners through the universal learner initiative by increasing individual success through personalized learning pathways and promoting adaptability to all accelerated social-technical changes.
Eight design aspirations guide ASU’s ongoing evolution as a New American University. ASU integrates these institutional objectives in innovative ways to demonstrate excellence, access and impact.
